

KRIPPER CONFIDENTIALITY STATEMENT

This Confidentiality Statement applies to information made available by Ambionic B.V. ("Ambionic") through this confidential Kripper webpage and in related discussions.

1. Purpose

Access is provided solely for the purpose of evaluating Ambionic's Kripper compliant robotic gripper, providing feedback or insights, and discussing potential applications, implementation, integration or collaboration relating to the gripper (the "Purpose").

2. Confidential Information

The videos, images, demonstrations, technical information, designs, concepts, performance information and other non-public information made available through this webpage or directly by Ambionic in connection with the Purpose are Confidential Information.

Information will also be considered confidential where, from its nature or the circumstances in which it is shared, it would reasonably be understood to be confidential.

3. Your obligations

By accessing the confidential material, you agree to:

- use the Confidential Information only for the Purpose;
- keep it confidential and not publish, distribute or disclose it outside your organisation;
- share it within your organisation only with people who reasonably need to see it for the Purpose and who are subject to confidentiality obligations; and
- not copy, record or redistribute the material except where reasonably necessary for the Purpose.

These obligations do not apply to information that you can demonstrate:

- was already publicly available without breach of this Statement;
- was already lawfully known to you before Ambionic disclosed it;
- was lawfully received from another source without confidentiality restrictions; or
- was independently developed without use of Ambionic's Confidential Information.

4. Intellectual property

All intellectual property and other rights in Ambionic's technology and Confidential Information remain with Ambionic.

Access to this information does not grant any licence, ownership right or other right to use Ambionic's technology except for evaluation in connection with the Purpose.

5. No obligation to collaborate

Providing access does not require either you or Ambionic to enter into any commercial, development or other collaboration.

Any future implementation, development or commercial collaboration will be subject to a separate agreement between the relevant parties.

6. Duration

These confidentiality obligations apply for three (3) years from the date you accept this Statement.

Nothing in this Statement limits any protection that may separately apply to trade secrets under applicable law.

7. Applicable law

This Statement is governed by the laws of The Netherlands.

Acceptance

By accessing the webpage, you confirm that you have read, understood and agree to this Confidentiality Statement.
